Disciplinary action may be taken against anyone attempting to remove books from the Libraries in an unauthorized manner. Otherwise overdue fines will be imposed.

- (i) Notwithstanding the installation of an electronic security system, all books and personal belongings must be surrendered for inspection at the Library exit at the request of the library staff.
- (j) No loan may be renewed if the book has been requested by another borrower. Not more than five renewals may be made on any loan. Reserve materials on two-hour loan may not be renewed.
- (k) No due dates will be stamped on charged-out items except items with a loan period less than seven days. All current students and staff members should be aware that notifications including due date, coming due, overdue, recall and pickup will be sent to the email addresses supplied by the Computer Centre of the University of Hong Kong. All users are also reminded to regularly check their online circulation records for the most updated due dates.

L 4 Fines for late return of books

- (a) Fines for the late return of books borrowed will be charged at rates to be set from time to time by the Library Committee.
- (b) A first overdue notice will be sent to the borrower when the book is overdue, and a second overdue notice will be despatched one week later, but fines will accrue irrespective of the sending or receipt of a recall notice, and the onus of avoiding the late return of books rests with the borrower.
- (c) All loaned items with loan period of 30 days or more may be recalled if requested by another user regardless of the original loan period. The guaranteed minimum use period of recalled books is 16 days from the check-out date. Recalled items must be returned on or before the revised due date printed on the recall notice. Fines will be imposed and patron records will be blocked from further borrowing, renewing or requesting for late returns.

L 5 Books assumed lost

Books which are overdue for 21 days or more and not returned will be assumed to have been lost by the borrower, who will be charged accordingly.
